

Name of clubgroup:	Advisor	Short Description of Cub:
ACS Auburn Chem CLub	Prin Furst	Chem Club is a STEAM club for anyone that enjoys science. You do not need to take chemistry to join. Our motto is " All the fun of labs without the write up". The ACS Auburn Chem Club chapter is sponsored by the American Chemical Society, a national association. We explore the science behind everyday things, compete in local and national ACS sponsored contests, science fairs and talk to local scientists. The ACS offers chapter members career advice, scholarships for college and graduate school and lifelong membership benefits for scientists.
AHS International Club	Charlene Holmes-Sullivan	The objective of the club is to promote intercultural learning and understanding. We investigate various cultures from around the world and create activities and displays to teach students throughout the school about other cultures.
AHS Orchestra	Victoria Kinney	Welcome to the AHS Orchestra! Here you'll learn how to play various string instruments and play a variety of songs from classical to rock. The music we play is never boring and always has some sort of spice to it. You'll also meet new people here. People you never knew you could make friends with, friends that could last a lifetime. You'll learn about composers, music pieces, styles of music, and all sorts of stuff that will enrich your life. It's also a safe place for all, no matter who you are.
Art Club	Kimberly Bunce	Student led art club for students where all students are welcome to participate. This club gives students who are not currently taking an art class the opportunity to practice their skill and love for art.
Auburn High School Literary Magazine	Kimberly Doan	Literary Magazine club is a student run club which produces a yearly magazine full of student written pieces and student artwork. Throughout the year, students can submit pieces of writing or art, that are then read and looked at by the students in the club. The club members then select pieces to be put in the magazine, put together the magazine and publish at the end of the year. This is a great way for students to express themselves. We meet once a month to discuss and edit the magazine. This is a fun club for all and any interested in art, writing, editing, and publishing.
Curling	John Ferrara	Inspired by the popularity of the Winter Olympics and sitting equidistance (70 miles) from the two oldest curling clubs in the U.S.. The AHS Curling Club exists to organize student field trips to both of those historic venues.
Debate Club	Gina Warren	Debate Club meets every other Wednesday after school. During this time, we debate student-chosen topics, discuss topics of interest to students, and respectfully learn about and discuss others viewpoints. We have, in the past, collaborated with other clubs for larger-scale debates and hope to continue doing so.
Drama Club	David Fisselbrand	Drama Club is inclusive to all students and we rehearse and perform 2 plays each year - a fall play and a spring play. No acting experience is necessary. There are roles for students who would prefer to be behind the scenes and we work as best we can around sports schedules for students who are interested. Our goal is to find a part for every student that is interested and to have fun building shows and bonds. We also usually do a club trip to a play or festival each year.
Equestrian Club	Prin Furst	Do you love horses and everything about them? This club is for you. You do not need a horse or know how to ride to join. We get together to talk horse and learn more about horses.
French Club	Kacey Marsh	French club celebrates the French language and culture by playing games, listening to music, watching short films, enjoying cultural foods and speaking the language.
Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA)	Catherine Cassaletta	To help bring business and education together through leadership and career development programs.
History Club	J. Ferrara & J. Oliver-Carr	This club meets every two weeks to discuss historical events, plan field trips to visit various historical sites. In the past we have traveled to the Genesee Country Village, Erie Canal, Albany and Washington D.C. All students are welcome to join this club. Another part of this club is to hold the annual Test of Knowledge competition. Club members create the questions and run the competition.

Italian Club	Alana Bell	Learn more about the language and culture of Italy through discussion, games and food. Italian Club participates in various events throughout the school year.
Junior Class	Jody Catalone	The Junior Class is run by student-elected officers that lead the Junior class in fundraising, prom planning and community involvement. The class designs and executes the annual Auburn Maroons Clothing Sale which brings Maroon pride to AHS, as well as alumni and the Auburn community.
Living History Club	Jeannette Oliver-Carr	This club focuses strictly on Auburn's local history. In the past we have worked alongside the Seward House Museum and students had the opportunity to dress in costume and portray important members of the community from the past. The goal is to learn about Auburn's past and promote what has been learned. Field trips to various local locations are provided throughout the year and depending on the year, club members work with elementary schools to enrich students with our local history.
Model UN	John Ferrara	Model United Nations is a club where students participate in a simulation of the United Nations General Assembly and other committees. Students debate using a Harvard debate style and assume the role of a representative a country in the UN. The Auburn chapter of Model UN attends two conferences, one at Syracuse University, and one at St. John Fisher College.
National Honor Society	Kathleen Becker	The National Honor Society (NHS) is the nation's premier organization established to recognize outstanding high school students. More than just an honor roll, NHS serves to recognize those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of scholarship, service, leadership, and character.
SADD Club	Julie Liccion	To empower young people to successfully confront the risks and pressures that challenge them throughout their daily lives. It fosters a sense of belonging and promotes resiliency, leadership, and advocacy skills so that young people make positive life decisions that will carry them through life.
Science Olympiad	Prin Furst	The science Olympiad Chemistry challenge is a test of knowledge about chemistry. We suggest you are part of the AP Chemistry class to challenge the test but any chemistry student is welcome. High scoring students will be asked to join the New York state Chemistry Olympiad team where they will be coached by scientists and university professors to be eligible for the National Olympiad team.
Student Council	Sarah Dautrich	Student Council is a group of four-five students who are elected by the student body. They are responsible for a variety of events and activities which include class elections, daily morning announcements, school fundraisers, and hosting the Red Cross for two blood drives each school year. Their goal is to help implement ideas brought to them by other students and clubs, and to help promote a positive environment through school-wide activities.
Technology Club	William Gilmore	Students meet monthly to collaboratively develop and solve real-world engineering problems using STEM principles, the design process, robotics, electronics, and fabrication.
Varsity Club	G.Klock & K. Doan	To help promote Schoolwide Spirit. Involved in planning all Homecoming Events including T-Shirt Sales, Spirit Week Activities, Pep Rally, and Dance.
Video Game Club	Brian Bealer	This club is for students who enjoy playing video games with other people. There is a large variety of game systems including Wii, PS4, and Switch.
Yearbook	Michael Villano	Students and the Advisor accumulate information and pictures of all the events, sports, and other material from Auburn High School, to produce a record of the year to be published and printed for the students of Auburn High School.
Youth to Youth	Julie Liccion	To engage young people through meaningful activities and experiences in order to develop and implement their own ideas to create positive change.

Z-Club	Julie Liccione	To empower young women and men through service and advocacy and to stimulate new and meaningful student-led service and advocacy projects.
